

Zanussi Built-In Gas Hob

Whip up tasty meals with the Series 20 Traditional Gas Hob. Cooking with gas is responsive and easy to control, making it the perfect choice for a family with varied tastes. Confident cooking made easy. The hob's responsive gas taps feature Perfect Flame regulation. Giving you complete control over the temperature you want to cook your favourite dishes with. Get cooking quickly with Integrated Ignition. To activate with cooking zone, simply press the temperature knob down and turn. The built-in Gas Safety feature offers peace of mind in the kitchen. If the flame were to go out accidentally while you're cooking, the hob will automatically switch the gas off, too. The stainless-steel slim design hob barely rises above the countertop, for a seamless kitchen finish. And its raised edge will prevent any spillages from running onto surrounding surfaces.
